

Labour Relations Advisor

The BC Public School Employers' Association is seeking an experienced professional to provide labour relations support to BC's 60 public school districts. Relying on your keen awareness of the provincial labour relations environment, you will be the primary contact with senior staff in a client group of school districts, providing advice and guidance on a full range of labour relations and human resources initiatives and activities, including administration and interpretation of collective agreements. In addition, you will be the designated subject matter expert on issues related to workplace harassment and investigations.

As part of our team of knowledgeable and collegial labour relations professionals, you will also participate in a variety of special projects and initiatives, including participation in the design and facilitation of training/professional development sessions.

Whether you are working with our client boards of education, provincial government representatives, management associations, or union representatives, you have a well-earned reputation for consistent, high-quality strategic thinking, solution-oriented decision-making, and establishing effective working relationships. In addition to relevant education, experience, and sound technical writing skills, you have a strong client focus and commitment to deliver a consistently high calibre of service.

Our office is located at 300 – 2889 East 12th Avenue in Vancouver. We offer a competitive compensation plan and a collegial work environment. Qualified individuals are invited to submit a cover letter and resumé, by September 5th, 2018 to silvanas@makeafuture.ca

The British Columbia Public School Employers' Association (BCPSEA) supports public education through innovative human resource practices, partnerships, and services. We are the full-service employers' association and accredited bargaining agent for BC's 60 public boards of education.