Public School Employers and BC Teachers’ Federation reach tentative deal

VANCOUVER – “The BC Public School Employers’ Association (BCPSEA) has today reached a tentative Provincial Collective Agreement with the BC Teachers’ Federation,” said Alan Chell, Chair of the BCPSEA Board of Directors.

“The agreement is for a three-year term and further details will be released after ratification by public boards of education and public school teachers,” Chell said.

“With the challenges, concerns, and priorities arising from the global COVID-19 pandemic, we are very pleased that both parties recognized the need to bring this round of bargaining to conclusion,” said Chell.

“We are hopeful that boards and teachers will ratify this agreement and that we can work together to focus on continuity of student learning, as well as the health and safety of our school communities.”

BCPSEA is the accredited bargaining agent for the province’s 60 public boards of education.
