With due regard to seniority, a reserved vacancy may also be considered to facilitate the employee's return to full employment status.
- e) It is understood that the Union and Board reserve their right of access to the grievance procedure up to and including arbitration should there be disagreement with the application of these Modified Work Plan provisions.

11.10.8 Long Term Disability

The following conditions will apply and will be communicated to the candidate:
 - i) The assignment will be temporary and will not exceed twelve (12) months in duration for a twelve (12) month position and ten (10) months in duration for seasonal positions. APPENDIX "A"

Floating Statutory Holiday

Article 8.1.4 Floating Statutory Holidays

Each July 1st regular employee who have completed the probationary period shall be entitled to two (2) Floating Statutory Holidays annually, which will be taken at such times as mutually agreed upon between the Board and the employee. Floating Statutory Holidays shall be taken at no additional cost to the Board and are non-cumulative. If for operational reasons, the days provided cannot be taken at no cost to the Board, an employee may take the Floating Statutory Holidays on days that school is not in session.

District Practice:

When can floater days be taken?

The District's interpretation of the above article is that Floater days should be taken only when there is no disruption or minimal disruption to the school or the provision of educational service. Floater days must be requested by the employee. If not requested and taken they are not paid.

12-month employees - are able to take their two (2) floaters at a time when there is no disruption to the school quite easily - Christmas, Spring break, NI days and during the summer.

10-month employees - are able to take their two (2) floater days with no disruption to the school at Christmas, Spring break, and NI days. Requests to take the days during the school year may be made and be taken with the approval of the employee's supervisor.

No additional cost to the Board:

There are no issues with twelve (12) month employees as floater days are always taken at a time when a substitute is not required. A ten (10) month employee who works one hundred ninety (190) days a year is eligible for two (2) floater days and they could receive pay for one hundred ninety-two (192) days. The cost to the Board for each ten (10) month position could therefore be one hundred ninety-two (192) days.

Examples:

A school year of one hundred ninety (190) working days is used in the examples below.

1. Ten (10) month employee takes floater days at Christmas or Spring Break, no substitute is required.

Employee is paid for 190 days + 2 floater days = 192 days
Substitute is paid = 0 days
Cost to Board = 192 days

2. Ten (10) month employee requests and receives approval from supervisor to take two (2) floater days when school is in session and a substitute is not required.

Employee is paid for 188 days + 2 floater days = 190 days
Substitute is paid = 0 days
Cost to Board = 190 days

3. Ten (10) month employee requests and receives approval from supervisor to take one (1) floater day when school is in session and a substitute is not required.

Employee is paid for 189 days + 1 floater day = 190 days
Substitute is paid = 0 days
Cost to Board = 190 days

(employee is eligible to take one (1) more floater day)

4. Ten (10) month employee requests and receives approval from supervisor to take one (1) floater day when school is in session and a substitute is required.

Employee is paid for 189 days + 1 floater day = 190 days
Substitute is paid = 1 day
Cost to Board = 191 days

APPENDIX "B"

Sick Leave

Article 10.1.2

Sick leave shall be granted to employees on a pro-rata basis on the basis of one and one-half (1 ½) days for every month of service.

How is sick leave calculated?

Sick leave is calculated based on an employee's average workday (weekly hours divided by 5 days).

Examples:

1. Employee A has a 25 hour per week position. Their schedule is 6.25 hours per day Monday - Thursday.

25 hours per week / 5 days = an average of 5 hours per day

5 hours per day x 1.5 days/month = 7.5 hours of sick leave accrued per month

2. Employee B has a 25 hour per week position. Their schedule is 5 hours per day Monday - Friday.

25 hours per week / 5 days = an average of 5 hours per day

5 hours per day x 1.5 days/month = 7.5 hours of sick leave accrued per month

3. Employee C has a 10 hour per week position. Their schedule is 5 hours per day Tuesday and Thursday.

10 hours per week / 5 days = an average of 2 hours per day

2 hours per day x 1.5 days/month = 3 hours of sick leave accrued per month

4. Employee D has a 40 hour per week position with 200 hours of accumulated sick benefit.
Employee D takes a new position of 20 hours per week.

Hours of accumulated sick time / (hours per week/days per week) = days of accumulated sick time

$200/(40/5) = 25$ days of accumulated sick in current position

Days of accumulated sick time x (previous hours per week/new hours per week)

$25 \times (40/20) = 50$ days of accumulated sick in new position

Days of accumulated sick time in new position x (new hours per week/days per week)

$50 \times (20/5) = 200$ hours of accumulated sick benefit in new position

Family Sick Leave

Article 10.1.10

In case of illness to an immediate member of the family of an employee where no one other than the employee can provide for the needs of the ill person, an employee shall be entitled to use a maximum of ten (10) accumulated sick leave days per year for this purpose, after notifying their supervisor. Immediate family for the purpose of this Section shall be defined as parent, spouse, common-law partner, child and child of common-law partner. Such illness must be certified by a medical practitioner if so requested. Notwithstanding the above, at least twelve (12) days must be maintained to be used only in the case of an employee's illness or injury.

Who is eligible for family sick leave?

Employees who maintain a balance of more than 12 days of sick leave.

How is family sick leave calculated?

When an employee is eligible for family sick leave, up to 10 days of sick leave will be transferred to the family sick leave accrual.

Example:

Employee A has a 25 hour per week position. Therefore, their average day is 5 hours.

Case 1 for Employee A:

Sick Leave Accrual Balance	200 hours (40 days)
Transfer to Family Sick Leave	50 hours (10 days)
Sick Leave Accrual Balance	150 hours (30 days)

Case 2 for Employee A:

Sick Leave Accrual Balance	80 hours (16 days)
Transfer to Family Sick Leave	20 hours (4 days)
Sick Leave Accrual Balance	60 hours (12 days)

Adjusting the accruals

The sick leave and family sick leave accruals will be adjusted regularly in order to maintain the 12-day minimum sick leave requirement and to track the annual 10-day limit for the use of family sick leave.

If an employee has more than 22 days in their sick leave accrual, 10 days will be transferred to their family sick leave accrual; otherwise the excess over 12 days will be transferred.

The Parties will establish a Joint Health and Safety Taskforce of not more than five (5) members appointed by CUPE and five (5) members appointed by BCPSEA. Each Party will consider the appointment of subject matter experts in occupational health and safety, and special education.

Either Party may bring resource people as required, with advanced notice to the other party. These resource people will be non-voting and at no added cost to the committee.

The work of this joint taskforce will be completed by January 1, 2020 and will include:

- Developing a joint communication to school districts and local unions on the obligation to report and investigate incidents including incidents of workplace violence.
- Reviewing and developing a Joint Health and Safety Evaluation Tool for the K-12 sector to ensure compliance with WorkSafe BC regulations.

The union agrees to cover any other costs incurred for the union member.

Copies of completed evaluations shall be provided to local presidents and employers as outlined on the evaluation tool.

The parties agree to commence the work of this taskforce upon approval of the Provincial Framework Agreement by both parties prior to the commencement of this PFA. - a. Implementation of best practices to integrate skill development for support staff employees with district goals and student needs;
- b. Developing and delivering education opportunities to enhance service delivery to students;
- c. Identifying, developing and delivering education opportunities to enhance and support employee health and safety, including non-violent crisis intervention;

7. Job Evaluation (JE) Committee

The Parties will continue and conclude the work of the provincial job evaluation steering committee (the JE Committee) during the term of this Framework Agreement. The objectives of the JE Committee for phase two are as follows:

- Review the results of the phase one pilot and outcomes of the committee work. Address any anomalies identified with the JE tool, process, or benchmarks.

- Expand the pilot to an additional ten (10) districts including at least two (2) non-CUPE locals to confirm the validity of the tool and the benchmarks.
- Rate the provincial benchmarks and create a job hierarchy for the provincial benchmarks.
- Identify the job hierarchy for local job descriptions for all school districts.
- Compare the local job hierarchy to the benchmark-matched hierarchy.
- Identify training requirements to support implementation of the JE plan and develop training resources as required.

It is recognized that the work of the committee is potentially lengthy and onerous. To accomplish the objectives expeditiously the Parties agree that existing JE funds can be accessed by the JE committee to engage consultant(s) on a fulltime basis if necessary to complete this work.

It is further recognized that this process does not impact the established management right of employers to determine local job requirements and job descriptions nor does this process alter any existing collective agreement rights or established practices.

Once the objectives outlined above are completed, the JE Committee will mutually determine whether a local, regional or provincial approach to the steps outlined below is appropriate.

The committee, together with consultant(s) if required, will develop a method to convert points into pay bands. The confirmed method must be supported by current compensation best practices.

The disbursement of available JE funds shall commence by January 2, 2020 or as mutually agreed.

The committee will utilize available funds to provide 50% of the wage differential for the position falling the furthest below the wage rate established by the provincial JE process and will continue this process until all JE fund monies at the time has been disbursed. The committee will follow compensation best practices to avoid problems such as inversion.

The committee will report out to the Parties at key milestones during the term of the Framework Agreement. Should any concerns arise during the work of the committee they will be discussed and resolved by the Parties at that time.

The parties confirm that the $900,000 of ongoing annual funds established under the 2014-2019 Provincial Framework Agreement will be used to implement the Job Evaluation Plan. An additional $3 million of ongoing annual funds will commence on July 1, 2021.

8. Provincial Labour Management Committee (PLMC)

The Parties agree to establish a PLMC to discuss and problem solve issues of mutual provincial interest. The purpose of the committee is to promote the cooperative resolution of workplace issues, to respond and adapt to changes in the economy, to foster the development of work related skills and to promote workplace productivity.

The PLMC shall not discuss specific grievances or have the power to bind either Party to any decision or conclusion. This committee will not replace the existing local grievance/arbitration processes.

The parties agree that the PLMC will consist of up to four (4) representatives appointed by BCPSEA and up to four (4) representatives appointed by the Support Staff Unions. Either Party may bring resource people as required, with advanced notice to the other party and at no added cost to the committee.

The PLMC will meet quarterly or as mutually agreed to for the life of the agreement and agree to include Workplace Health and Safety as a standing agenda item.

10. Support Staff Initiative for Recruitment & Retention Enhancement (SSIRRE)

The Parties commit to a Support Staff Initiative for Recruitment & Retention Enhancement (SSIRRE) with the following objectives:

17. Adoption of Provincial Framework Agreement (PFA)

The rights and obligation of the local parties under this Provincial Framework Agreement (PFA) are of no force or effect unless the collective agreement has been ratified by both parties no later than November 30, 2019.

Re: Public Sector General Wage Increases

1. If a public sector employer as defined in s. 1 of the Public Sector Employers Act enters into a collective agreement with an effective date after December 31, 2018 and the first three years of the collective agreement includes a cumulative nominal (not compounded) general wage increase of more than 6%, the general wage increase in the 2019-2022 Provincial Framework Agreement will be adjusted on the third anniversary of the 2019-2022 Provincial Framework Agreement so the cumulative nominal (not compounded) general wage increases are equivalent. This Letter of Agreement is not triggered by any general wage increase awarded as a result of binding interest arbitration.
2. A general wage increase and its magnitude in any agreement is as defined by the PSEC Secretariat and reported by the Secretariat to the Minister of Finance.
3. For certainty, a general wage increase is one that applies to all members of a bargaining unit and does not include wage comparability adjustments, targeted lower wage redress adjustments, labour market adjustments, service improvement allocations, and is net of the value of any changes agreed to by a bargaining agent for public sector employees to obtain a compensation adjustment.

Refusing unsafe work

Workers have the right to refuse unsafe work. If you have reasonable cause to believe that performing a job or task puts you or someone else at risk, you must not perform the job or task. You must immediately notify your supervisor or employer, who will then take the appropriate steps to determine if the work is unsafe and remedy the situation.

As an employer, workers are your eyes and ears on the front line of workplace health and safety. When workers refuse work because they believe it's unsafe, consider it an opportunity to investigate and correct a situation that could have caused harm.

If a worker refuses work because it's unsafe, workplace procedures will allow the issue to be properly understood and corrected. As a worker, you have the right to refuse to perform a specific job or task you believe is unsafe without being disciplined by your employer. Your employer or supervisor may temporarily assign a new task to you, at no loss in pay.

Steps to follow when work might be unsafe:

1. Report the unsafe condition or procedure

As a worker, you must immediately report the unsafe condition to a supervisor or employer.
As a supervisor or employer, you must investigate the matter and fix it if possible. If you decide the worker's concern is not valid, report back to the worker.

2. If a worker still views work as unsafe after a supervisor or employer has said it is safe to perform a job or task

As a supervisor or employer, you must investigate the problem and ensure any unsafe condition is fixed. This investigation must take place in the presence of the worker and a worker representative of the joint health and safety committee or a worker chosen by the worker's trade union. If there is no safety committee or representing trade union at the workplace, the worker who first reported the unsafe condition can choose to have another worker present at the investigation.

3. If a worker still views work as unsafe, notify WorkSafeBC

If the matter is not resolved, the worker and the supervisor or employer must contact WorkSafeBC. A prevention officer will then investigate and take steps to find a workable solution.

Worker Rights and Responsibilities:

On a worksite, everyone has varying levels of responsibility for workplace health and safety. You should know and understand your responsibilities — and those of others. If you're a worker, you also have three key rights.

Your rights

- The right to know about hazards in the workplace
- The right to participate in health and safety activities in the workplace
- The right to refuse unsafe work without getting punished or fired

Your responsibilities

As a worker, you play an important role in making sure you — and your fellow workers — stay healthy and safe on the job. As a worker, you must:

- Be alert to hazards. Report them immediately to your supervisor or employer.
- Follow safe work procedures and act safely in the workplace at all times.
- Use the protective clothing, devices, and equipment provided. Be sure to wear them properly.
- Co-operate with joint occupational health and safety committees, worker health and safety representatives, WorkSafeBC prevention officers, and anybody with health and safety duties.
- Get treatment quickly should an injury happen on the job and tell the health care provider that the injury is work-related.
- Follow the treatment advice of health care providers.
- Return to work safely after an injury by modifying your duties and not immediately starting with your full, regular responsibilities.
- Never work under the influence of alcohol, drugs or any other substance, or if you're overly tired.

Employer Responsibilities:

Whether a business is large or small, the law requires that it be a safe and healthy place to work. If you are an employer, it is your responsibility to ensure a healthy and safe workplace.

Your responsibilities

- Establish a valid occupational health and safety program.
- Train your employees to do their work safely and provide proper supervision.

Supervisor Responsibilities:

Supervisors play a key role with very specific health and safety responsibilities that need to be understood.

A supervisor is a person who instructs, directs, and controls workers in the performance of their duties. A supervisor can be any worker — management or staff — who meets this definition, whether or not he or she has the supervisor title. If someone in the workplace has a supervisor's responsibilities, that person is responsible for worker health and safety.

Your responsibilities

- Ensure the health and safety of all workers under your direct supervision.
- Know the WorkSafeBC requirements that apply to the work under your supervision and make sure those requirements are met.
- Ensure workers under your supervision are aware of all known hazards.
- Ensure workers under your supervision have the appropriate personal protective equipment, which is being used properly, regularly inspected, and maintained.
